CTC Board Member Appointed Chairman of the Alameda County (California) Veterans Affairs Commission

Conway B. Jones, Jr., board member of Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC), has been elected Chairman of the Alameda County (California) Veterans Affairs Commission.

The Commission's role is to advise and assist the Alameda County Board of Supervisors on matters relating to veterans and their families as may pertain to their basic needs for veteran's benefits, housing, food, shelter and employment. Alameda County is home to more than 70,000 veterans.

There are plans on the drawing board for the construction of a new $210 million Veteran Administration Outpatient Clinic and Columbarium in the city of Alameda on the site of the former Alameda Naval Air Station. The plans call for a twenty-first century, state-of—the-art medical and mental health facility as well as a critically needed columbarium. The two-story, three wing clinic will measure 158,000 square feet on 30 acres of land.

Jones is a retired Air Force Colonel who served as a navigator. He accrued over 6,800 flying hours and 87 missions in Vietnam.
