CTC Foundation Makes Donation to Flight 93 National Memorial

The eighth annual observance of Flight 93 and September 11 took place at the Flight 93 National Memorial on September 11, 2009. The National Park Service planned the commemorative service which included the traditional reading of the names of the passengers and crew, and tolling of the Bells of Remembrance by members of the Families of Flight 93 as well as members of the wider community who assisted on and around September 11, 2001. Howard M. Picking, III, Chairman of CTC's Board of Directors, represented the CTC Foundation at the event.

The National Park Service intends to build a permanent memorial at the site; and toward this effort, the CTC Foundation, on behalf of CTC and its affiliates, pledged $50,000. Since the pledge date in 2007, the CTC Foundation has contributed $30,000 to the Flight 93 Memorial Fund and will contribute $20,000 over the next two calendar years.
